“Blazing a feminist trail for UKYA” – Red magazine online

Spinster Club girls Evie, Amber and Lottie are reunited for the mother of all New Year's Eve parties. Having spent months apart since finishing college, they've got plenty to catch up on: how is Evie juggling a relationship with her OCD? Does Amber plan to spend more time with Kyle in America? And where did Lottie end up? Get ready for some serious partying - and some major New Year's revelations - from everyone's favourite cheesy-snack-loving feminists.

“This is a book to press into the hands of every teenage girl you know”

– Fiona Noble for The Bookseller on What's A Girl Gotta Do?

Holly Bourne is an author and journalist. Her feminist education began when she read Caitlin Moran's How to be a Woman. This, as well as her experiences working at an advice charity for young people and her own experiences of blatant everyday sexism, drove her to write Am I Normal Yet?

“An involving look at feminism, friendship and the secrets we hide.”

- The Observer on Am I Normal Yet?

Holly has appeared at #FeminismInYA panels across the UK and Ireland, and at an event with feminist icon Rosie Boycott at the Southbank's WOW Festival. She is also a 2016 World Book Night author and has been shortlisted for this year's YA Book Prize.
