

Activities

Who's who?

Choose two sentences for each character.

The Firebird

Prince Ivan

Princess Marya

Kaschey

A.

...catches a feather from the Firebird's tail.

B.

...takes an apple in her long beak.

C.

...was stolen from the palace
gardens by the sorcerer.

D.

...is always watching.

E.

...promises that he will find the princess.

F.

...has hidden his soul
outside his body.

G.

... is more beautiful than
all the other girls.

H.

...can fly where she wants.

Mixed-up story

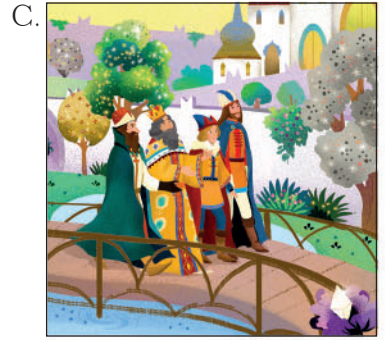

Can you put these pictures and sentences in order?

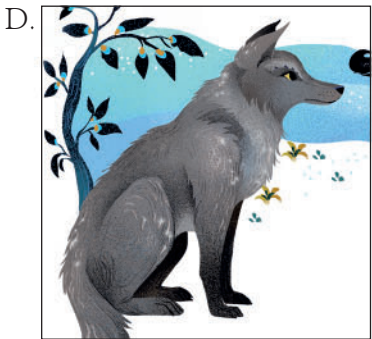

Ivan was surprised to see a garden full of flowers and statues.

Ivan jumped up and tried to catch the bird.

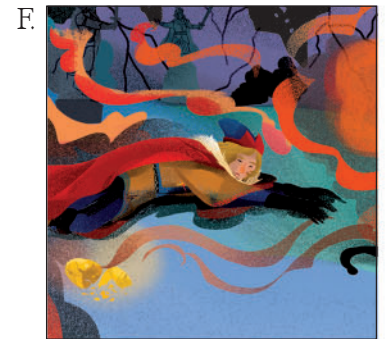

The King liked to walk in the garden every morning.

"I will carry you to King Dalmat's palace," said the silver wolf.

"How can a prince like you be a thief?" asked the king.

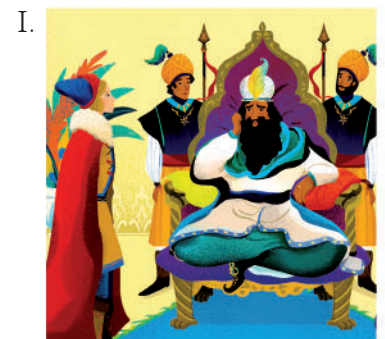

The egg broke into a thousand pieces.

"What do you think you can do against Kaschey the Deathless?"

"Look! Someone has stolen an apple!"

"Is there something I can do for you, sir?" Ivan added.

Who says this?

Match the words to the right person.

Prince Vassily

King Saltan

Princess Marya

Ivan's father

- A. "Please, stay here with us."
- B. "The Firebird is just a story for children."
- C. "I hope she will come back often."
- D. "I know she is still alive."

What happened next?

Choose the right sentence.

Prince Dimitri watched the apple tree with the guards.

- A. He caught the Firebird's tail feather.
- B. In the morning, another apple was missing.

Ivan saw a signpost in the forest.

- A. Silver Wolf attacked his horse.
- B. He decided to go back to the palace.

Ivan reached for the plain bridle.

- A. He led the Horse of Power out of the stable.
- B. He heard bells all the way to the palace.

Silver Wolf came down in a corner of the garden.

- A. Ivan saw the shape of a man in a long dark cloak.
- B. Ivan heard music and voices between the trees.

Is that right?

One word in each sentence is wrong.
Can you find it and choose the right word instead?

"Sir, you must have this lovely bird in your palace always."

stables tower garden

He was asleep when Silver Wolf flew high into the air.

amazed afraid alive

"Too late, little prince!"
Kaschey thought.

added heard laughed

"We have been Kaschey's guards for hundreds of years."

servants prisoners brothers