

CREATE YOUR OWN DIWALI GIFT BOX

YOU WILL NEED: CARD • SCISSORS • COLOURING PENCILS • DIWALI TREATS

Aunty Bindi's decorations are LEGENDARY.

ANISHA
ACCIDENTAL DETECTIVE

CREATE YOUR OWN DIWALI GIFT BOX

YOU WILL NEED: CARD • SCISSORS • COLOURING PENCILS • DIWALI TREATS

ANISHA ACCIDENTAL DETECTIVE

Diwali is the five-day Festival of Lights, celebrated by millions of Hindus, Sikhs and Jains across the world. Diwali is a festival of new beginnings and the triumph of good over evil, and light over darkness.

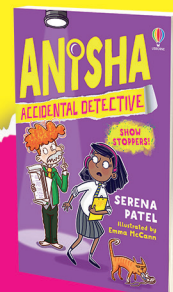

1. PRINT THIS TEMPLATE ONTO CARD
2. GET COLOURING!
3. CUT OUT THE TEMPLATE*
*PLEASE ASK AN ADULT TO HELP
4. FOLD TO BUILD YOUR BOX
5. FILL WITH GOODIES
6. GIFT YOUR BOX OR USE IT AS A COLOURFUL DECORATION

author
SERENA PATEL

"My children and I have such a fun time making up Diwali boxes that we can fill with gifts for our families and friends, so I thought you might like to join in. My favourite things to put in the box are chocolates and hand painted divas. You can fill yours with your favourite treats!"

Anisha, Accidental Detective: Show Stoppers
by Serena Patel • 9781474989756

