

Bunny napkin rings

1. Fold a stiff piece of paper, the length of your hand, in half. Draw half the shape of a bunny's head.

2. Cut around the shape of the head. Open out the paper and use felt-tip pens to draw a face.

3. For the body, draw a rectangle on a piece of thick paper. Make it twice the length of your hand.

4. Add two bumps at one end for the feet. Draw a dotted line a little way in from the other end.

5. Draw another line about a hand's length along. Cut out the shape. Fold it along the dotted lines.

6. Put some glue along the short edge and curve the paper over. Stick the edge behind the feet.

7. Turn the head over and put two blobs of glue below the ears. Press the head onto the body.

8. For a tail, pull a piece off a cotton ball. Roll it into a ball and glue it on the back of the body.

To bend a bunny's ear, roll it around a pencil.
