

Friendship puzzle

How much can you remember about being a good friend? For each of these little stories about friends, choose a kind thing to do or say.

Mala has been playing with a toy for a long time and Holly wants a turn. What should Holly do?

Snatch the toy.

Say, 'Please, can I have a turn next?'

Cry.

Jess has built a high tower but Aisha knocks it down by mistake. What should Aisha do?

Say, 'It was a stupid tower anyway.'

Laugh.

Say, 'sorry' and help Jess build it again.

Sam wants to make friends with a new boy called Mo. What should Sam do?

Say, 'I don't like your coat.'

Say, 'Hello, my name's Sam. What's yours?'

Say, 'I'm the best footballer in the world.'

Yasmin is looking upset. What should her friend Tandi do?

Push Yasmin.

Play with someone else.

Ask, 'What's the matter?'

Charlie has lost his pencil and asks Ivan to help him. What should Ivan do?

Say, 'You're silly to lose your pencil.'

Say, 'Go away! I'm busy.'

Say, 'I'll help you to look for it.'

Answers: Say, 'Please can I have the toy next? / Say, 'sorry' and help Jess build it again / Say, 'Hello, my name's Sam, / Ask, 'What's the matter?' / Say, 'I'll help you to look for it.'

Usborne Activities

Activity taken from All About Friends

Share your activities with us #UsborneActivities.

Illustrations by Mar Ferrero
Copyright © Usborne Publishing Limited, 2024.

