

Inspiration board

You could use a scrapbook or a pinboard to note down ideas that inspire you.

5 classic movies I want to watch

THE RED BALLOON (1956)
A beautiful story about a little boy and a red balloon.

THE KID (1921)
Charlie Chaplin plays a poor man who rescues an orphan.

IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE (1946)
George Bailey is shown what the world would be like if he hadn't lived.

BICYCLE THIEVES (1948)
A poor man searches Rome for his stolen bicycle.

SOME LIKE IT HOT (1959)
Two male musicians hide from gangsters by pretending to be women in an all-girl band.

Local DRAMA Nights!

If you want to get involved with live drama, try joining a local acting group. Local groups put on plays you can watch in your area too.

COOL SHOT

You can make sketches or cut out pictures of images that you really like from magazines. These can inspire stories, settings, shots and costumes for all kinds of shows.

UNDER SEA CAR IDEA

Beak made with rolled paper

CROW COSTUME

Cape

Be a critic ★★★★★

Write a review of a TV show you've watched.

Title:

Quick story summary:

What did you like about it?

What was the best scene?

What was the best line of dialogue?

How do you rate it?

/10

4 great cartoons

MY NEIGHBOR TOTORO (1988)
Two girls meet the spirit of the forest.

THE IRON GIANT (1999)
A boy becomes friends with an enormous war machine.

RANGO (2011)
A story about a very imaginative lizard and the stories we make up about ourselves.

KUBO AND THE TWO STRINGS (2016)
A boy goes on a spooky and dangerous magical quest.

If you hear an interesting piece of dialogue on TV, in a play or in a movie, jot it down to use later in your own script.

I've got a feeling we're not in Kansas anymore...