KIDS OF 2020 LETTER WRITING PROJECT

In partnership with the National Literacy Trust and The Postal Museum, P. G. Bell, author of The Train to Impossible Places adventures invites YOU to join the Kids of 2020 Letter Writing Project.

2020 has been a significant year in our history and you were a part of it. We'd like to invite you to write a letter to a child in 2030 telling them what life was like for you last year and send it to us. Some of the letters will form part of an exhibition by The Postal Museum!

Here are some ideas to get you started:

☀️ Since you're writing to a child the same age as you, make sure you write about the sorts of things you like to read about, and make the style fun and engaging.

☀️ Before you begin, use a sheet of paper to create a map of everything you would like to say in your letter.

☀️ When you're ready to start writing, use the template below (based on Wilmot's Top Tips) to write your letter.

Please send your finished letter to:

publicity@usborne.co.uk

Kids of 2020, Publicity Department, Usborne Books, 83–85 Saffron Hill, London, EC1N 8RT

When sending your letter, please include your address or email so that The Postal Museum can get in touch if they would like to include your letter in the exhibition.

Letters need to be received by 2nd April 2021 to be considered for inclusion in the exhibition at The Postal Museum.
