

Your character

Turn this stick figure into a character by adding clothes and accessories. Fill in the blanks in the thought and speech bubbles, too.

Hello, my name is
.....
and the thing I want most in life is
.....

One thing no one knows about me is...
.....
.....

Giving your character a distinctive feature or two means your reader can easily tell that it's the same person all the way through your comic.
