

Silent letters

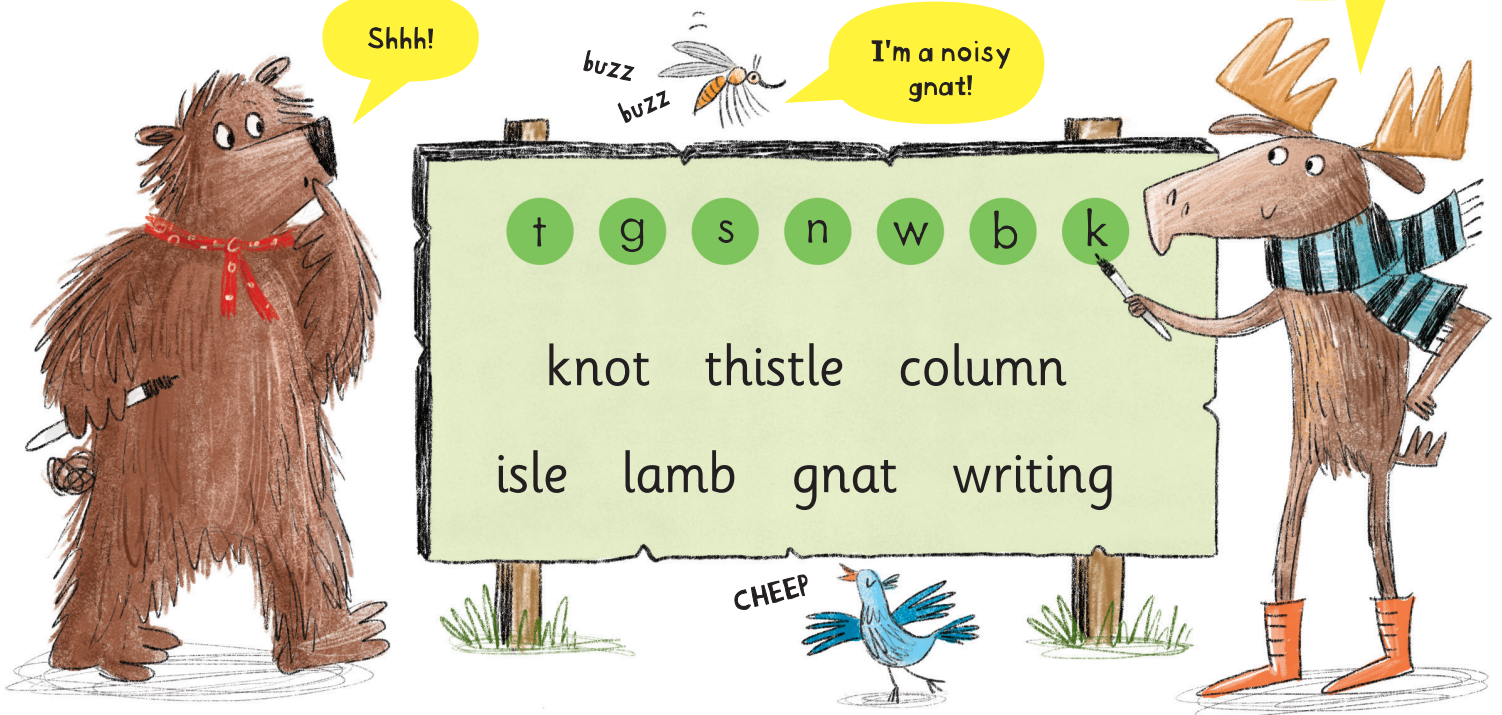

The animals are learning about words with silent letters (letters whose sounds you can't hear when you say the word). Look at Brenda's board and underline one silent letter in each word.

When you've underlined a letter, draw a line through the same letter in this row.

Shhh!

buzz
buzz

I'm a noisy gnat!

Now choose a silent letter to fill each gap in Harley's sentences.

Here are the letters to choose from.

Don't stick your thum..... in my cake!

Can you see the ship.....reck on the shore of the i.....land?

Thenight made a solem..... promise.

Thenome's chin was covered with bris.....les.
