A picture can make your mind wander to interesting places. Write a story, an article, a poem — or anything you like — about the picture opposite.

Some ideas

Make up a story, using one of the people or animals as the main character.

Write about how the picture makes you feel.

Describe an event in your life that this image brings to mind.

Write an interview with one of the characters in the picture.

Imagine a conversation between two of the characters, and write it as a screenplay.
