

Agent Arthur on the Stormy Seas

Arthur was shocked to see Jim and Kate being pushed into a small boat on the beach below. As the twins were rowed over to a rusty old tug, Sleuth the dog growled in the villains' direction. "Don't worry, boy," Arthur reassured him. "We'll rescue the twins. First we must find a way through this razor-sharp coral reef."

Can you help Arthur find a safe route to the tug boat?
