

Summer Activity Pack

ALL ABOARD!

It's time for the ferry to sail away across the sea, but first the cars need to board and the cabins need to be prepared...

Doodle more seagulls in the sky.

Porthole puzzle

Each car you can see will need one cabin with a porthole, except for the cars with luggage racks, which will need two cabins. Figure out how many cabins will be occupied, then turn on their lights by filling them in with yellow pen or pencil.

Did you know?

Big ships have a line painted on the side called a Plimsoll line. If it dips under the water, that means the ship is carrying too much weight.

Lining up

Follow the instructions below to fill in all the cars.

- ☆ Make all the cars with luggage racks purple.
- ☆ All the cars between a red and a blue car need to be yellow.
- ☆ Then, fill in all the cars next to green cars in black pen or pencil.
- ☆ Make all the remaining cars orange.

DRAGON QUEST

Can you defeat the dragon in this game? Read the rules below, then mark the way you need to go on this video-game-inspired map.

Rules

You have three lives to reach the dragon's castle. Pick up magic eggs on your way and record them in the 'egg-cyclopedia' on the right. You can only use the spells and tools they contain once, after you've collected them. Don't stray from the path, but you can go back on yourself if you need to.

Draw the pattern of the egg you use each time.

A slime troll crawls out from under the bridge. Put it to sleep using one of your eggs.

To reach the egg behind this eagle, you'll have to distract it with some food.

You wake a sleeping banshee. If it screams any louder, it'll deafen you...

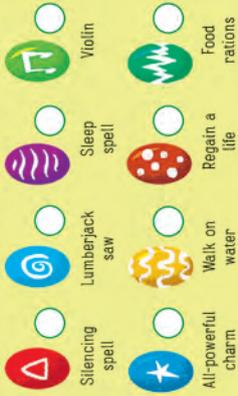

Can you cut your way through this forest?

You'll need to use one of the magic eggs to cross this deep water.

Did you pick up the all-powerful charm? You'll need it to defeat the dragon.

Egg-cyclopedia

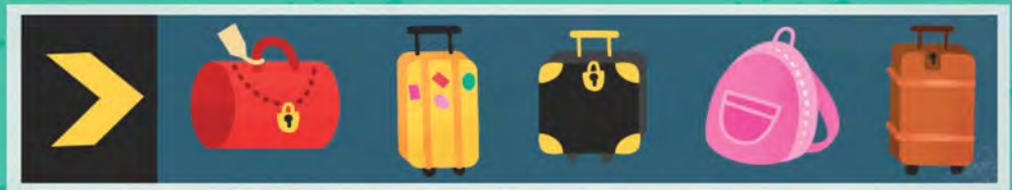

Fill in the circles next to the eggs here as you collect them. Then, cross out each one once you've used it.

Lose a life Fill in each circle until you've lost all three.

Check the luggage carousel VERY carefully.
Can you spot FIVE cases and bags that look exactly like these?
