

Activities

What are they thinking?
Choose the right sentence for each picture

A.

Is the old lady
having a party?

B.

The forest is safe, and it's beautiful.

C.

I'm going to have a very good day.

D.

I don't like most people.

What happened when?

Can you put these sentences and pictures in the right order?

The wolf jumped through the door.

Little Red Riding Hood wasn't frightened.

"Can I go and see Grandmother, please?"

"Now just come a little nearer..."

Soon there was another knock on the door.

The wolf swallowed the cake.

In the forest

Choose the right word to finish each sentence.

climbed fell knocked looked pulled stayed walked wandered

She quickly into the forest.

She away from the path.

She carefully at the animal.

He on the door.

Mr. Wolf's day

Choose the right sentence for each picture.

1.

A. "It's me," said the wolf in a little-girl voice.

B. "It's me," said Grandmother.

2.

A. "What big eyes you have," said Little Red Riding Hood.

B. "What big feet you have," said Little Red Riding Hood.

3.

A. "He finished the cake!"

B. "He ate the old lady!"

Sewing time

One word in each sentence is wrong.
Can you choose the right word instead?

1. The wolf was still hungry.

happy alive
asleep

2. She put the cake
inside the wolf's belly.

fruit book
stones

3. There was a loud
rumbling snore
from his belly.

stone laugh
noise

