

Activities

The answers are on page 40.

The contest begins

Choose the right word to finish each sentence.

1.

The day of the contest was and sunny.

long cold bright

2.

The Sheriff got down from his horse to the archers.

meet watch trick

3.

Some of the arrows didn't hit the targets at all, and the crowd cheered laughed helped

4.

"That's the best shooting I've ever"

heard seen done

Mixed-up story

Can you put these pictures and sentences in order?

The Sheriff got down from his horse to meet the archers.

A boy was walking through the forest.

Nobody saw the man in red again.

The contest was in a wide field next to the castle.

“You’re a better archer even than Robin Hood.”

“I think the Sheriff needs another surprise.”

The man in red’s arrow hit the Captain’s arrow and split it in two.

“The Sheriff is having an archery contest.”

One after another, the archers shot at the targets.

Who's who?

Choose two sentences for each person.

Robin Hood

The Sheriff

The Marshal

Little John

A.

He was angry with his soldiers.

B.

He wanted to bring the silver arrow to Sherwood.

C.

He told Robin the contest was a trick.

D.

He made his skin brown.

E.

He organized the Sheriff's contest.

F.

He asked the man in red to work for him.

G.

He was angry with the man in red.

H.

He knew how to send a message to the Sheriff.

The day of the contest

Which three things can't you see in the picture?

a town

someone
playing music

Robin Hood

a castle

archers

horses

the Sheriff

targets

someone dancing

a silver arrow

Say why...

Choose the right ending for each sentence.

1.

The Sheriff organised the contest because...

- A. ...he really liked archery.
- B. ...he wanted to catch Robin Hood.

2.

Robin Hood went to the contest because...

- A. ...he wanted to rob the Sheriff.
- B. ...he wanted to win the silver arrow.

3.

Robin Hood won the contest because...

- A. ...his arrow split the Captain's arrow.
- B. ...the Captain missed the target.

4.

The Marshal was angry because...

- A. ...the man in red didn't want to work for the Sheriff.
- B. ...the man in red ran away from the contest.