

The Wooden Horse

Activities

Who's who?

Choose two sentences for each person.

Odysseus

Helen

Menelaus

Paris

A.
He's the Prince of Troy.

B.
He lives on the island of Ithaca.

C.
She's married to King Menelaus.

D.
He asks Odysseus for help.

E.
He finds Helen hiding in the temple.

F.
He's the cleverest man
in Greece.

G.
King Menelaus wants to kill him.

H.
She's the most beautiful woman
in Greece.

Mixed-up story

Can you put these pictures and sentences in order?

The Greek army rushed into the city.

Everyone in Troy was glad that the war was over.

The soldiers built an enormous wooden horse.

Hundreds of ships sailed from Greece to Troy.

Odysseus thought of a plan.

The Greeks loaded their boats with treasure.

The Trojans brought the horse into the city.

Some messengers visited King Odysseus.

Odysseus climbed out first.

Where are they?

Choose one word from the list to finish each sentence.

The King and Queen sat ..... the fruit trees.

“There’s a man..... it,”
said the guard.

The Trojans brought Sinon ..... the gate.

They rested on an island ..... Troy.

The Greek army would soon be ready ..... the gates.

Menelaus put his arm ..... Helen.

under outside beside around near inside

What are they saying?

Choose the right word to finish each sentence.

1.

I must be the ..... man in the world.

handsomest
cleverest happiest

2.

I'm .....to hear that Helen is missing.

angry
sorry
happy

3.

We can't go on.
The men are .....

enormous exhausted
gone

4.

I've thought of a ..... trick.

safe
small clever

Which is true?

Choose the right sentence for each picture.

1.

A. Cassandra told the Trojans that something terrible would happen.

B. Cassandra told the Trojans to bring the horse into the city.

2.

A. King Menelaus stopped looking at Helen.

B. Paris couldn't stop looking at Helen.

3.

A. All day, the soldiers cut and shaped the tall trees.

B. All day, the soldiers rested under the tall trees.

4.

A. Sinon said that the Greeks wanted to kill him.

B. Sinon said that the horse was full of Greek soldiers.