

Activities

Who is Jane Eyre?

People tell Jane these things, or say these things about her. Which are true?

1.

You are poor, and your parents are dead.

2.

You are a difficult,
ungrateful child.

3.

This girl tells wicked lies.

4.

Your imagination
is a strange place.

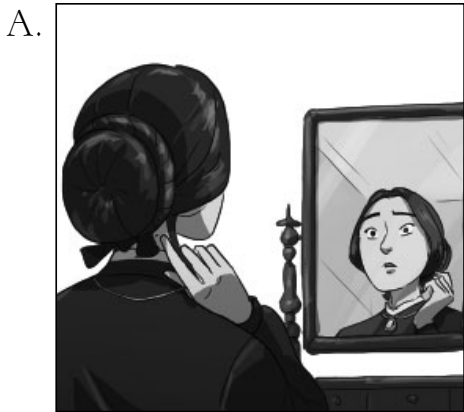

5.

You are an excellent teacher
and a good person.

What happened when?

Can you put these pictures and sentences in order?

I thought: "I'm such a fool."

We talked often in the evenings.

I could see he was in pain.

"She attacked me!"

Soon we were friends.

"Jane, it's you that I want to marry!"

"Jane Eyre? What are you doing here?"

"I thought they might get married."

I had never seen such a grand house.

Friends and enemies

Match the characters to the things they said.

Helen

Mr. Rochester

Mrs. Fairfax

A.

Do you think I'm handsome?

B.

He has a present for me.

C.

I thought you didn't like children.

D.

You could help me in my work.

E.

You've seen so little of life.

F.

I am going to heaven.

John Rivers

Blanche

Adèle

The day of the wedding

Choose the right sentence for each picture.

1.

- A. She took my wedding veil away.
- B. She tore my wedding veil in half.

2.

- A. At the church, Jane became Mr. Rochester's wife.
- B. At the church, Jane heard that Mr. Rochester had a wife already.

3.

- A. The lady looked shocked and silent.
- B. The lady looked like a wild animal.

4.

- A. Jane forgave Mr Rochester.
- B. Jane couldn't forgive Mr Rochester.

Jane's decisions

Say whether the sentences below are true or false.

1.

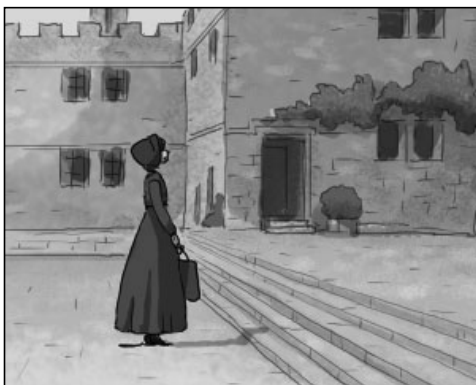

Jane wanted to go away to school.

2.

Jane called Helen a liar.

3.

Jane wanted to see more of the world.

4.

Jane thought she was beautiful.

5.

Jane wanted to go to India with John.

6.

Jane agreed to marry Mr. Rochester.