

USBORNE

ACTIVITY PACK

Kimberley Kinloch

ILLUSTRATED BY
Jessica Gibson

Me and my
Hair

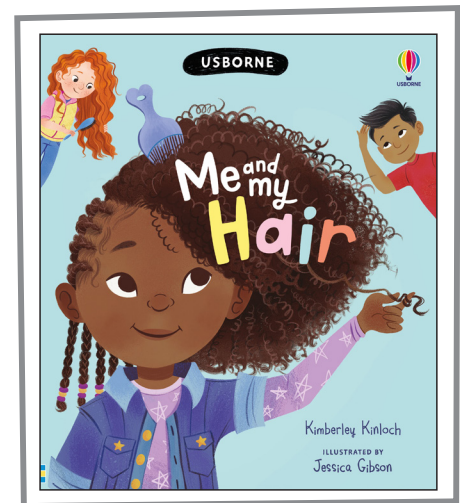

Me and my Hair

This resource pack is designed to be used alongside 'Me and My Hair' – a book all about straight hair and coily hair, red hair and black hair, cornrows and french braids in proud celebration of all things HAIR! The activities are best suited to children aged 6+, but can be used across Kindergarten to Grade 5.

ABOUT THE BOOK

A heart-warming journey of learning to love the hair you have, and the person you are.

Follow Kyra as she shares her thoughts and feelings about her amazing Afro hair, and the facts she learns about all kinds of hair types and styles. After a trip to the hairdresser's, Kyra's school friends have lots of questions for her, and she has lots for them too.

About the author

Kim always loved reading and writing from a very young age. Her siblings mocked her for it growing up, but Kim persisted. She studied Creative Writing at Roehampton University and later became a Children's Bookseller at Waterstones. She joined the Usborne sales team after university, but recently returned to her writing roots, joining the buzzing editorial team. Now she can be found writing stories for Usborne or reading stories to her two young daughters – feeling so happy she didn't give up on her dream.

Discover more at usborne.com

Illustrations by Jessica Gibson, Sandra Becker Borrée. Copyright © Usborne Publishing Limited, 2024.

CELEBRATE HAIRSTYLES

Hair means different things to different people and there are so many ways we can wear it. Being different from each other is called DIVERSITY and it is an amazing thing! Can you give these faces some FAB new hairstyles/accessories?

Illustrations by Jessica Gibson, Sandra Becker Borrée. Copyright © Usborne Publishing Limited, 2024.

Usborne Activities

Discover more in Me and my Hair.
Share your activities with us #UsborneActivities

USBORNE

CHAMPION HAIR CHOICES

UNFAIR FACT

At some schools, Black students weren't allowed to wear Black hairstyles. The teachers said they were messy.

Big Afros were banned...

...and so were cornrows!

None of the teachers making the rules had Afro hair, so they didn't understand what was best for it.

Your hair should look neat like mine.

But our hair doesn't grow like that!

Some students were really brave and spoke out about why the rules were unfair.

Luckily the rules have changed now, and more people can choose how they wear their hair. Phew.

ADOPT THE HALO CODE

The Halo Collective are an organisation of young people fighting against hair discrimination. Find out more halocollective.co.uk

DO YOU THINK SCHOOLS SHOULD HAVE RULES ABOUT HAIR?

Use the space below to write about how you think people should be able to wear their hair at school.

Illustrations by Jessica Gibson, Sandra Becker Borrée. Copyright © Usborne Publishing Limited, 2024.

Usborne Activities

Discover more in Me and my Hair.
Share your activities with us #UsborneActivities

USBORNE

Whether you wear it proudly like a CROWN...
choose to cover it up ...or just let it do its own thing...
...your hair is a part of you and that's really special.

HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT YOUR HAIR?

Illustrations by Jessica Gibson, Sandra Becker Borrée. Copyright © Usborne Publishing Limited, 2024.

Usborne Activities

Discover more in Me and my Hair.
Share your activities with us #UsborneActivities

USBORNE

How is Kyra having her hair styled?

- Dreadlocks
- Afro puffs
- Cornrows

Kyra describes her new hairstyle as amazing. Can you think of any other describing words (adjectives) that mean the same thing?

Why is Kyra happy to be getting cornrows?
Answer with a full sentence.

My new cornrows will be a great way to look after my hair while I play football. I glance up to see how my hairdresser Dee is getting on, but she's already finished!
It's amazing. Thanks, Dee!

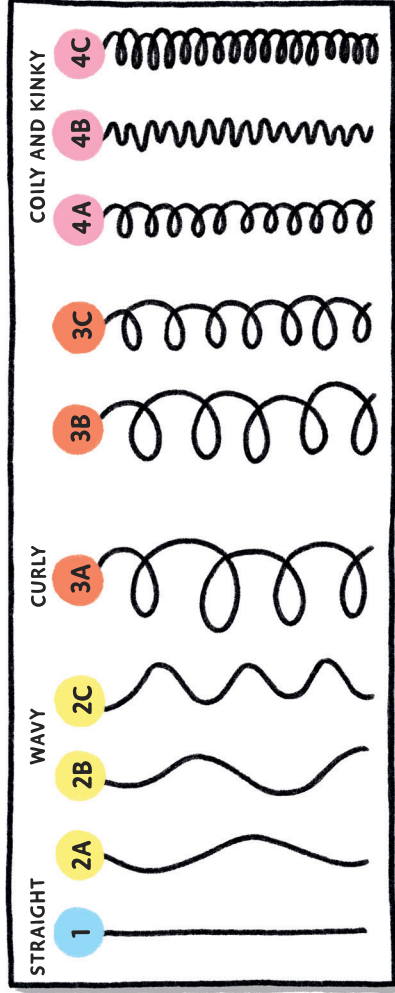

Illustrations by Jessica Gibson, Sandra Becker Borré. Copyright © Usborne Publishing Limited, 2024.

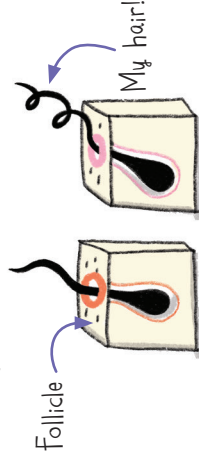

Me and my Hair

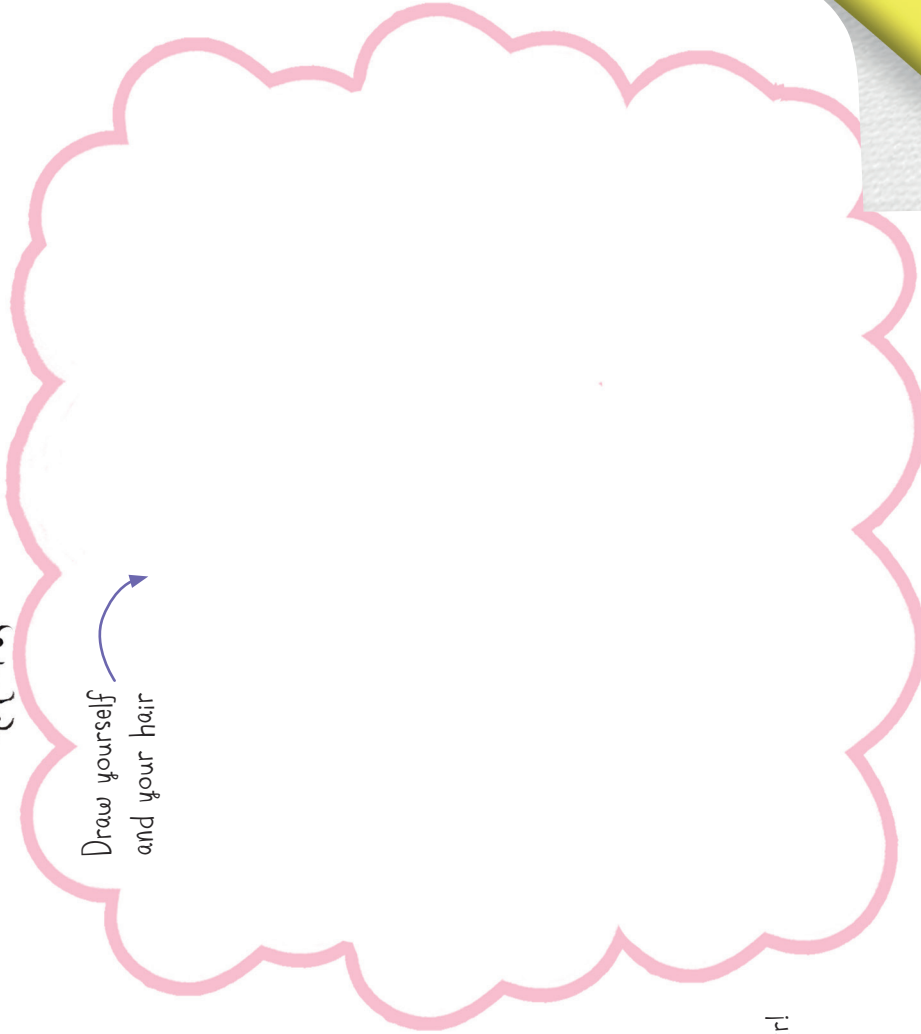

Which hair type do you think you have?

Hair grows out of little pockets in your skin, called follicles.

Draw yourself and your hair

FOLLICLE FACT

It's the shape of your follicles that shapes how your hair grows.

Straight

Curly

Coily

Illustrations by Jessica Gibson, Sandra Becker Borr e. Copyright   Usborne Publishing Limited, 2024.

Usborne Activities

Discover more in Me and my Hair. Share your activities with us #UsborneActivities