

PRINCESS (APPARENTLY)

One summer, two boys and a secret that could change everything...
A fun and romantic coming-of-age drama for fans of Geek Girl,
The Summer I Turned Pretty and The Princess Diaries.

BOOK CLUB QUESTIONS

1. At the start of the story, Della feels like she doesn't belong. How does her sense of identity evolve over the course of the book? What moments shape her the most?
2. What are your first impressions of Princess Aurélie? How does your opinion of her evolve throughout the story?
3. Della is thrown into a world of wealth and luxury. How does this make Della feel? How does the author explore the themes of class and privilege throughout the novel?
4. How does the author convey the differences between Old Town and New Town?
5. The rajeuni leaves are an important part of the story. What do they represent to Della?
6. We discover that Grandma Ruth has been in touch with Della's mum the whole time. Why do you think she makes the decision not to tell Della?
7. How does the author build the tension between Della and Ollie throughout the story?
8. "I suppose that when you love someone, you forgive them in your heart the moment you know the truth... Sometimes it just takes the mind and the mouth a little while to catch up." (P213). Do you agree or disagree with this statement, and why?
9. How would you react if you found out you were a member of a royal family? What would you be most excited about, and what would make you the most nervous?

Scan the QR code to discover more about Princess (Apparently)

USBORNE