

Activities

The start of the story

Can you put these pictures and sentences in order?

A.

Utterson took out the will of his old friend Henry Jekyll and read it again.

B.

“I ran after him and caught the monster.”

C.

“Do you know a friend of his called Edward Hyde?”

D.

When he woke, he was determined to meet the mysterious Mr. Hyde.

E.

Two men were walking through the city of London.

F.

“Now I shall know you again,” said Utterson.

Who's who?

Choose two descriptions for each character.

Mr. Utterson

Dr. Jekyll

Mr. Hyde

Dr. Lanyon

A.
...doesn't expect to live
much longer.

B.
...used to be a
good doctor.

C.
...is a well-respected
lawyer.

D.
...has a narrow, pale face.

E.
...is too upset to speak
about Jekyll.

F.
...has many grateful
clients and friends.

G.
...says his trouble will soon be over.

H.
...looks like a boy, but
with a wicked old face.

What happened next?

Choose the right sentence.

The servant girl began to scream, and the police were called.

- A. They recognized the walking stick at once.
- B. They found a letter, addressed to Mr. Utterson.

An old woman told them that Mr. Hyde was not at home.

- A. The police found the other part of the broken walking stick.
- B. Jekyll was sitting in one corner of the room.

Utterson showed the letter to his assistant, Mr. Guest.

- A. Guest noticed that the handwriting was similar to Jekyll's.
- B. He asked Guest not to read it until after Jekyll's death.

Utterson and Enfield saw Jekyll at an open window.

- A. He asked them for some special chemicals.
- B. The window closed suddenly and he disappeared.

Something is very wrong

Choose the right word to correct the mistake in each sentence.

1.

The wind made it difficult for the two men to see.

stand talk walk

2.

“I have been to many delighted shops to buy the chemicals he wanted.”

different disgusting dusty

3.

“He seemed to be making a mask.”

choosing hiding wearing

4.

Utterson and Poole turned the body over to see Hyde’s pale,
dead hand.

eyes face mouth

Solving the mystery

Choose the right word to finish each of these sentences.

1.

“I thought Jekyll sounded ....., so I went to his house at once.”

2.

“He seemed extremely upset, and possibly .....”

3.

“He drank the potion in front of me, and I saw something .....”

4.

“I was ..... to stop being Hyde forever.”

connected desperate untidy murdered incredible
dangerous scientific determined